

COMPETITION

Biobased Economy – what’s in it for you?

Why this competition?

So far, world economy is mainly oil-based. Gradually, however, we are moving towards a more sustainable “Bio-Based Economy” (BBE) But not everybody knows what BBE is and how many different aspects it has. Therefore, we invite you to show us what you understand from BBE and what consequences it may have.

Who can participate?

Students of secondary vocational education, especially in the “green” sector of the economy, supported by teachers and parents can participate.

How can you participate?

You can make a film, a photo story, a music piece or a song, a theatre-play. Or you can organize an exhibition, a practical school experiment, a presentation or an excursion on BBE (think, for instance, of biogas, algae production, sustainable energy, etc.)

What can you win?

The winner of the competition will be invited to the BBE Seminar in Luxembourg on 6 November 2015.

Deadline

15. June 2015

Important deadlines

Mail your contribution and the registration form to your national jury before 15 June 2015. If approved, the national jury will forward your contribution to the international jury on 15 August 2015.